Home-School Agreement Policy

Aims

The Home-School Agreement Policy includes details about how Anthem Schools Trust (the Trust) and each of our schools work together with parents towards achieving the best outcomes for children. Whilst home-school agreements are no longer a statutory requirement for schools, this policy encapsulates our belief that parents are a child's first and most important educators. This policy is designed to help achieve the highest possible standards of achievement through close communication and effective partnership with parents. At the end of this policy is the Home-School Agreement which parents are asked to read carefully and then sign the declaration.

Scope and publication

This Home-School Agreement Policy applies to all pupils and their parents at all Anthem Schools Trust (the Trust) schools.. This policy can be made available in large print or other accessible formats if required.

Who was consulted?

In drawing up this policy and agreement Meadow Park Academy drew upon information gained from parent and carer surveys regarding levels of satisfaction and behaviour within the school in order to clarify their expectations of the school. In addition, we reviewed current practices in communicating with parents and pupils and the School Council also provided an effective vehicle for consulting with pupils throughout the school by involving them in decision making.

Relationship to other policies

This policy relates most closely to the School Behaviour and Attendance and Punctuality and Pupil Registration Policies. It impacts on our approach to the prospectus and our aims and values. It is also relevant to many other school policies.

Ethos of the school

The ethos of the school is to foster positive relationships between all members of the school community, including all pupils, parents and staff. Bullying, harassment, victimisation and discrimination are not tolerated. The school will act fairly in relation to pupils and parents and we expect the same of pupils and parents in relation to the school and its staff. The school operates a therapeutic and restorative approach across its entire community.

Communication with parents

Excellent communication with parents is essential to the ethos of the school and is encouraged through a variety of methods:

- the school prospectus and updated website
- the school's Facebook page
- the school's Twitter feeds
- start-of-year meetings for parents/carers to get to know the class teachers as appropriate
- parent/carer information sessions to explain principles of pedagogy and support children's learning
- assemblies: including class, harvest, festivals and celebrations and end of term
- open mornings as appropriate
- school reports on pupil progress and achievement
- parent/carer consultation sessions
- meetings between staff and parents
- newsletters and parent information letters
- letters and reports
- published calendar dates
- displays and notice boards
- availability of documents, policies on website
- formation of a Parents/Carers' Association
- establishing a home-school agreement.

Assistance will be provided for parents/carers with any disability or difficulty, including for those parents for whom English is a second language, to assist with communication with the school as required. Please contact the school office for assistance in the first instance.

Consultation with parents

Regular consultation with parents/carers is also an integral part of the school's ethos. We always endeavour to take account of the views and feedback of parents and carers.

This will include consultation on general levels of satisfaction with education provision, selected aspects of the school's work and on the impact of specific initiatives.

Methods used will include:

- surveys/questionnaires conducted by the school or commissioned by professional companies and external agents
- face-to-face interviews
- School Council and Parents Association meetings
- newsletters
- email
- Facebook, Twitter or other social media; or
- text messages.

Success criteria

The success criteria for judging the effectiveness of parent/carer engagement strategies are:

- parents/carers feel welcome when they come into the school and report that they have ready access to the staff they need to meet
- parents/carers often give positive feedback and the number of complaints is low
- a growing number of parents/carers volunteer to help in school activities

- there is a high attendance at school events and good use of the school's website and social media pages
- responses from surveys are positive and supportive
- parents/carers find reports informative and helpful and feel able to support their children's progress.

The school will do its best to:

Signing the Home-School Agreement

We will take reasonable steps to ensure that all parents of registered pupils sign the parental declaration to indicate that they understand and accept the contents of the Home-School Agreement. Where parents have separated, where possible, both parents will be given the opportunity to sign a copy of the agreement's parental declaration.

We may also ask any pupil to sign the Home-School Agreement if we feel that the pupil is of sufficient maturity. However, we will not:

- invite a parent or child to sign the parental declaration before the child has been admitted to the school
- make the signing of the parental declaration a condition of the child's admission to the school; or
- base a decision about admitting a child to the school on assumptions about whether his or her parents are or are not likely to sign the parental declaration
- impose a sanction on parents who do not sign, or on pupils whose parents do not sign the declaration
- impose a sanction on pupils whose parents do not abide by the agreement.

Monitoring, evaluation and review

The Trust and the Headteacher will ensure that this policy and the agreement are reviewed at least every two years in consultation with parents, pupils, staff and Local Governors as necessary.
